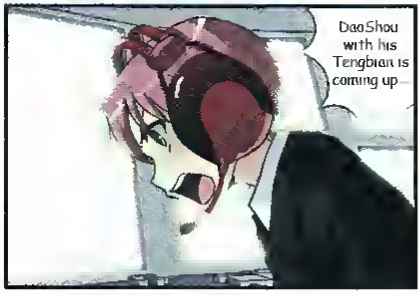
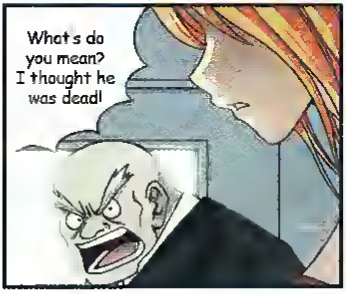
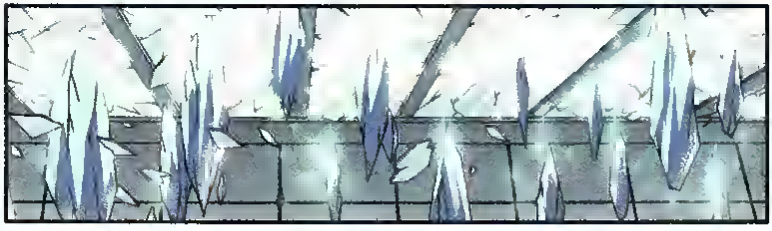
Chapter 192: Withered Red Primroses

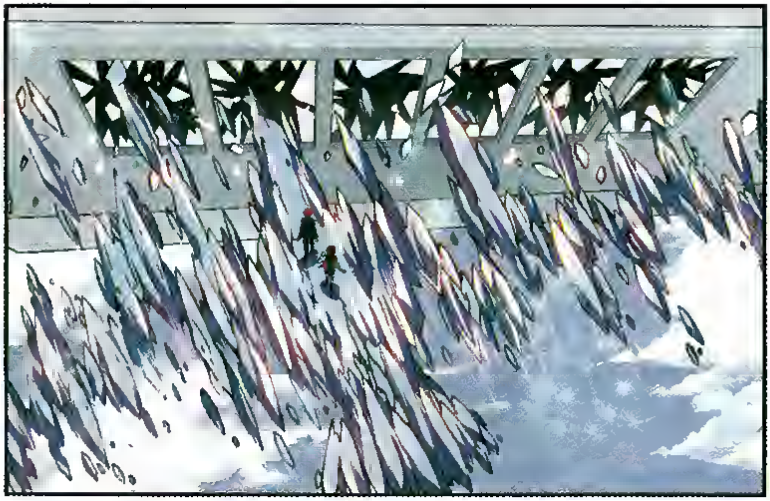


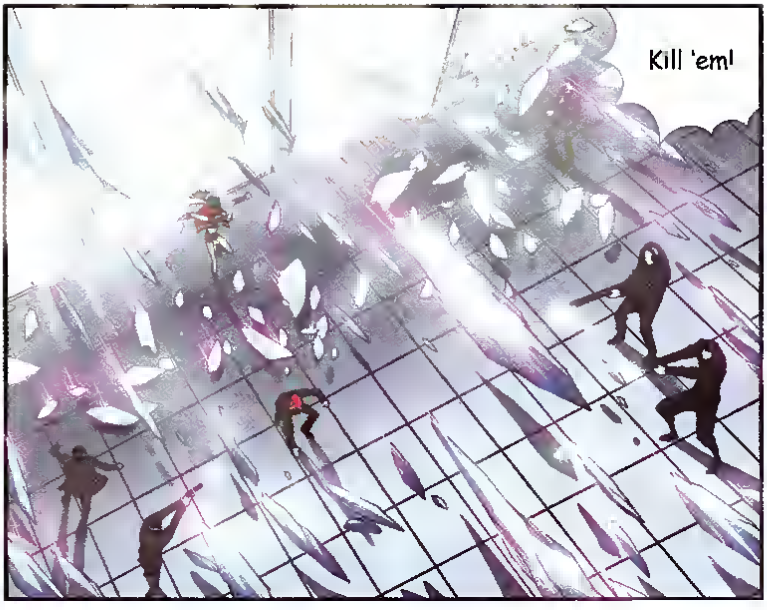
DaoShou with his Tengbian is coming up—



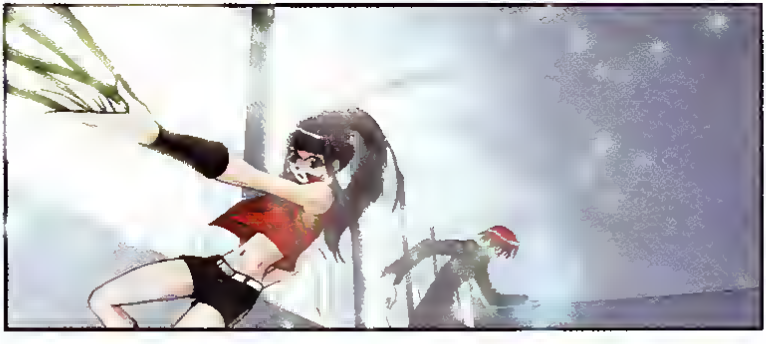
What's do you mean? I thought he was dead!

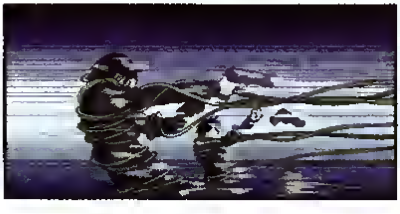




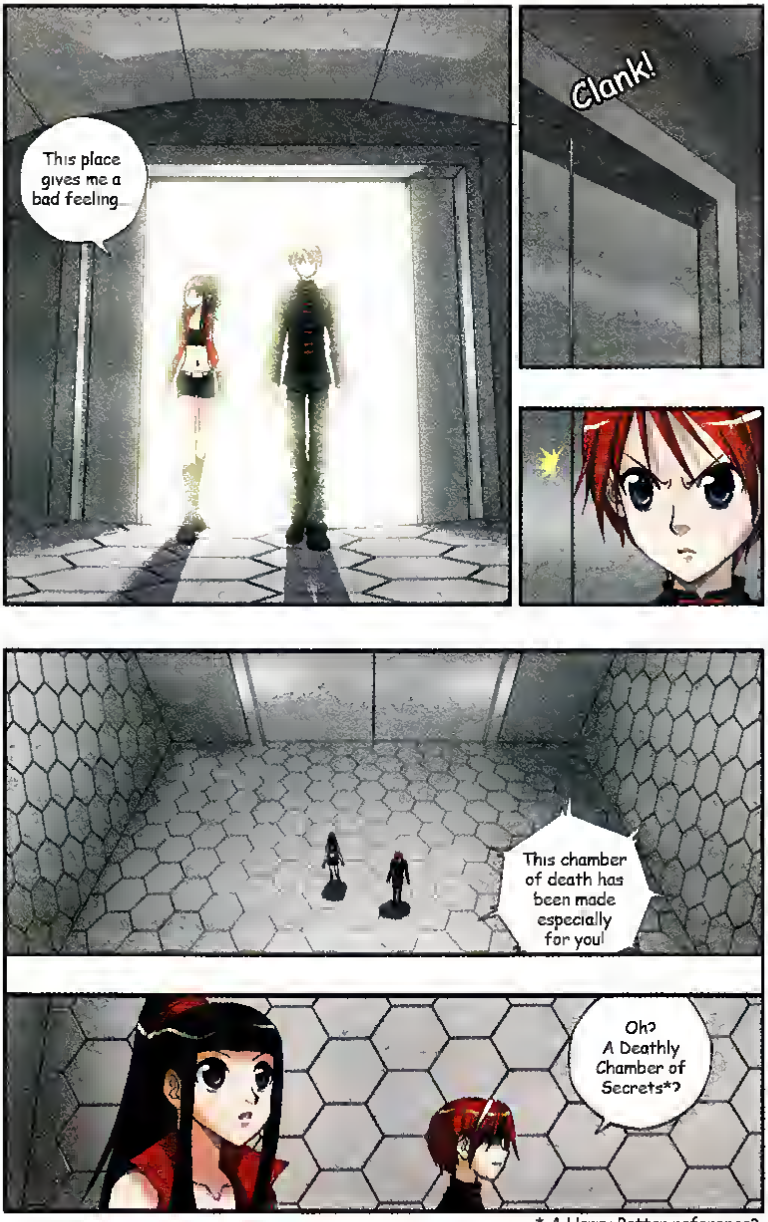


Kill 'em!



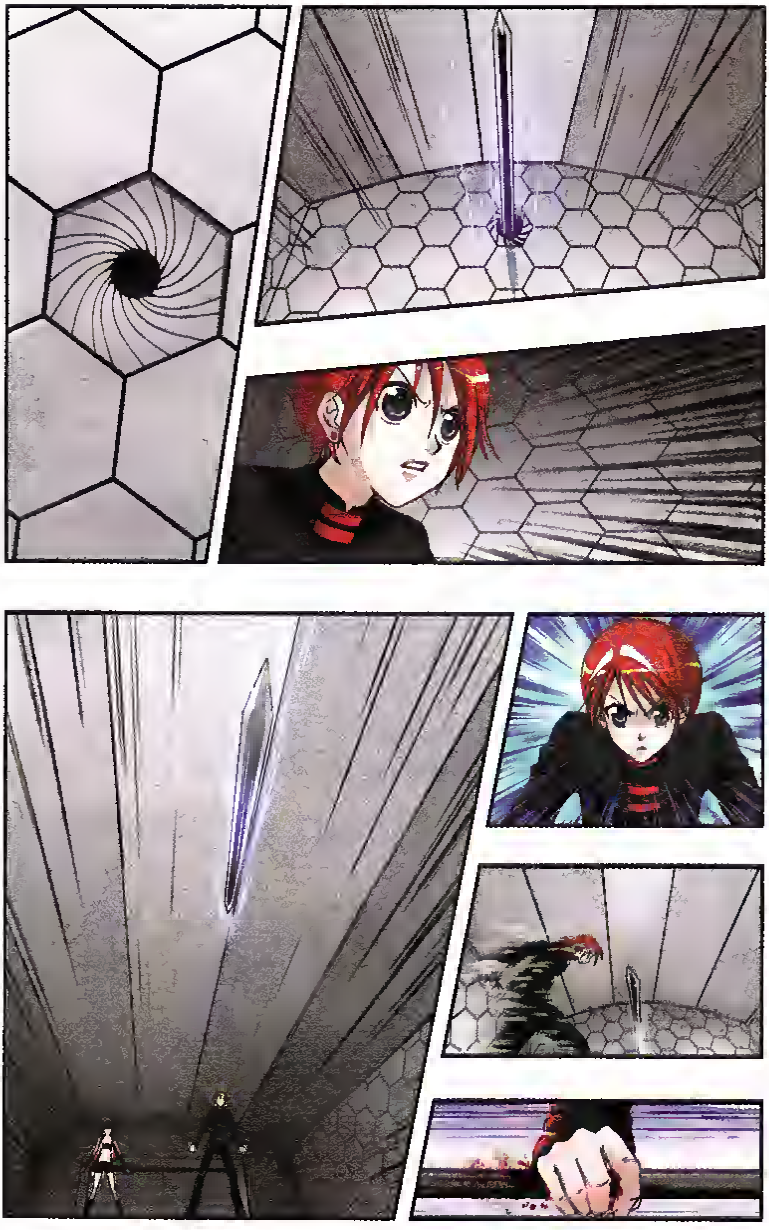


Please don't kill me! I listened to everything you said!
Wait... Mister Gold! He's here?
You should hide behind the escape hatch!
Thanks for everything!
After this, let's go find Mister Gold!
March...



This place gives me a bad feeling
Clank!
This chamber of death has been made especially for you!
Oh? A Deathly Chamber of Secrets*?

* A Harry Potter reference?



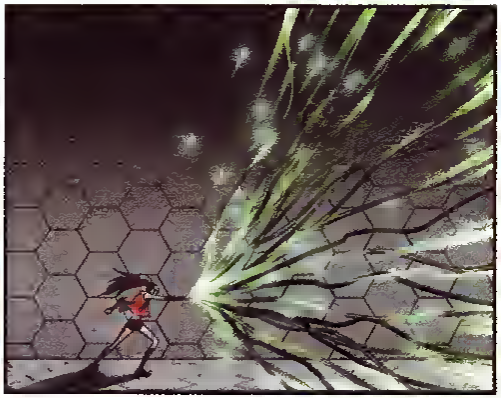
That arrow isn't made of metal! It can't break through the door!

You have the ability to control metal? This room is made of carbon! Hahahaha~
Enjoy the taste of Hell!
No, but they can control brain waves
Can the metal outside the chamber...

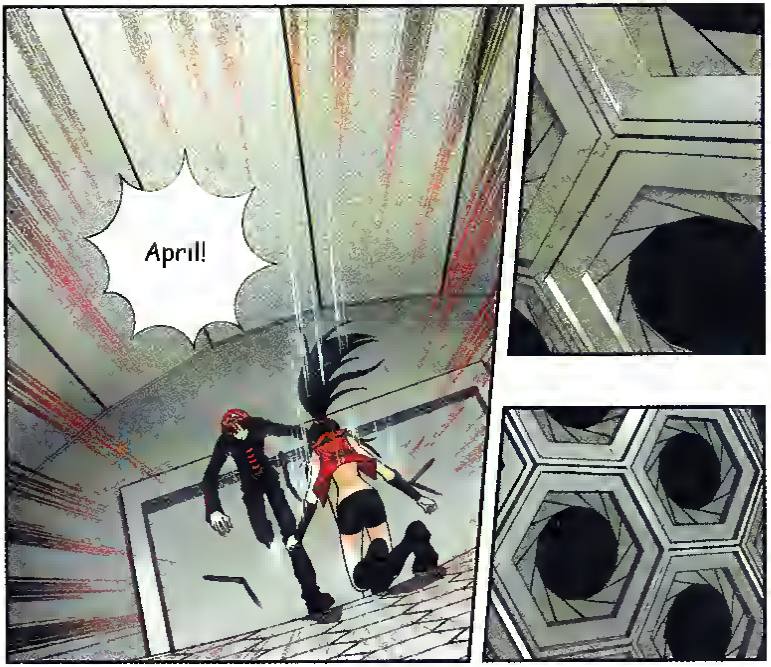
I'm not sure how well the vines are going to protect us!

April!

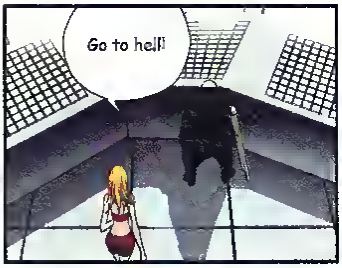
Don't come over here!



You blocked it?
Now let's try to get out of here!



April!



Go to hell!

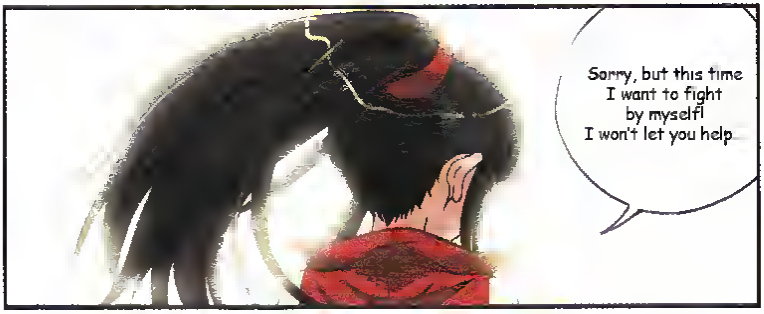
Let's go!

They're all open?

What are you doing?

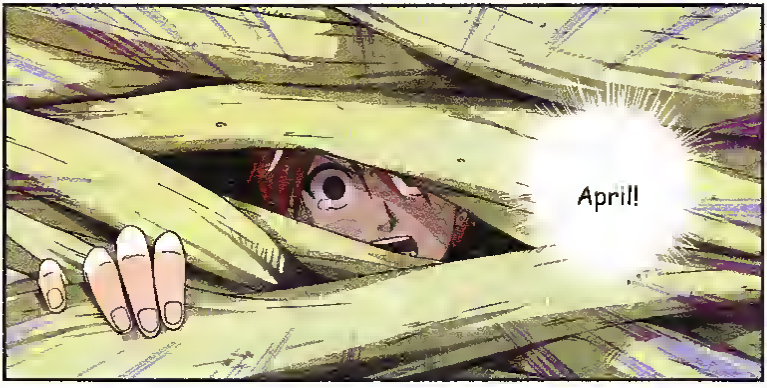
This kind of vine can protect you against a spear attack!

Why not use the vines to protect yourself?
I need to attack the enemy! The vines will block my attack!
Let me go we can fight together!

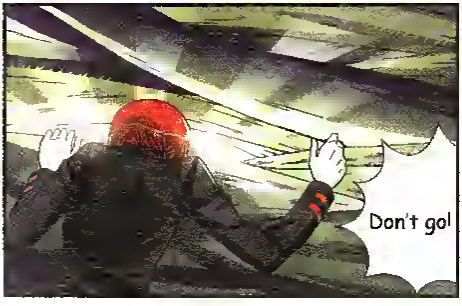


Sorry, but this time I want to fight by myself! I won't let you help

Being partners with you over the past few years has made me so happy!
Thank You!



April!

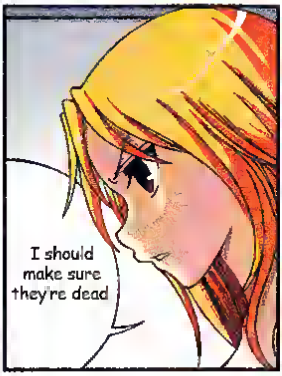


Don't go!

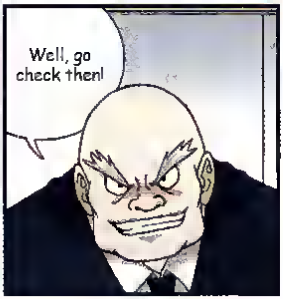
CLANK!
Huh? That sounds like a spear hitting the vine some where above me...

YOU IDIOT!

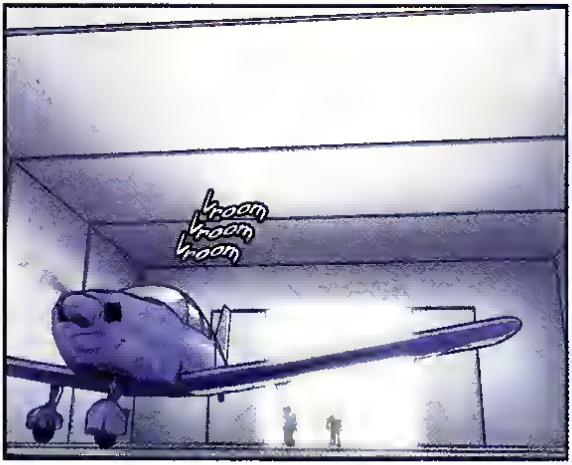
.....



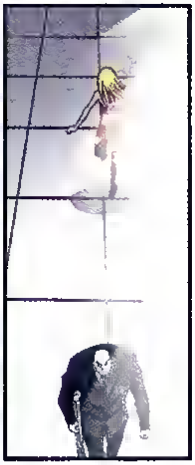
I should make sure they're dead

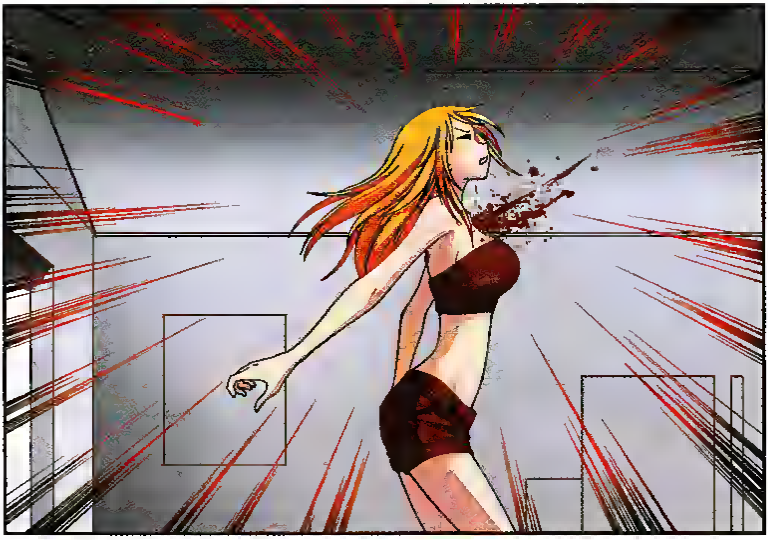


Well, go check then!

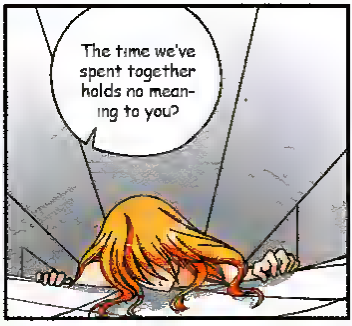


Vroom Vroom Vroom

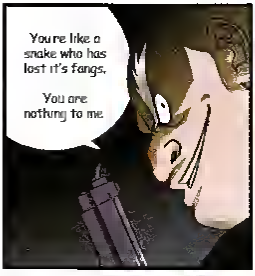




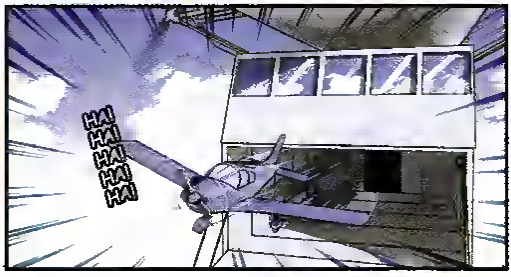
You don't have to kill the killer to convey your meaning, right?



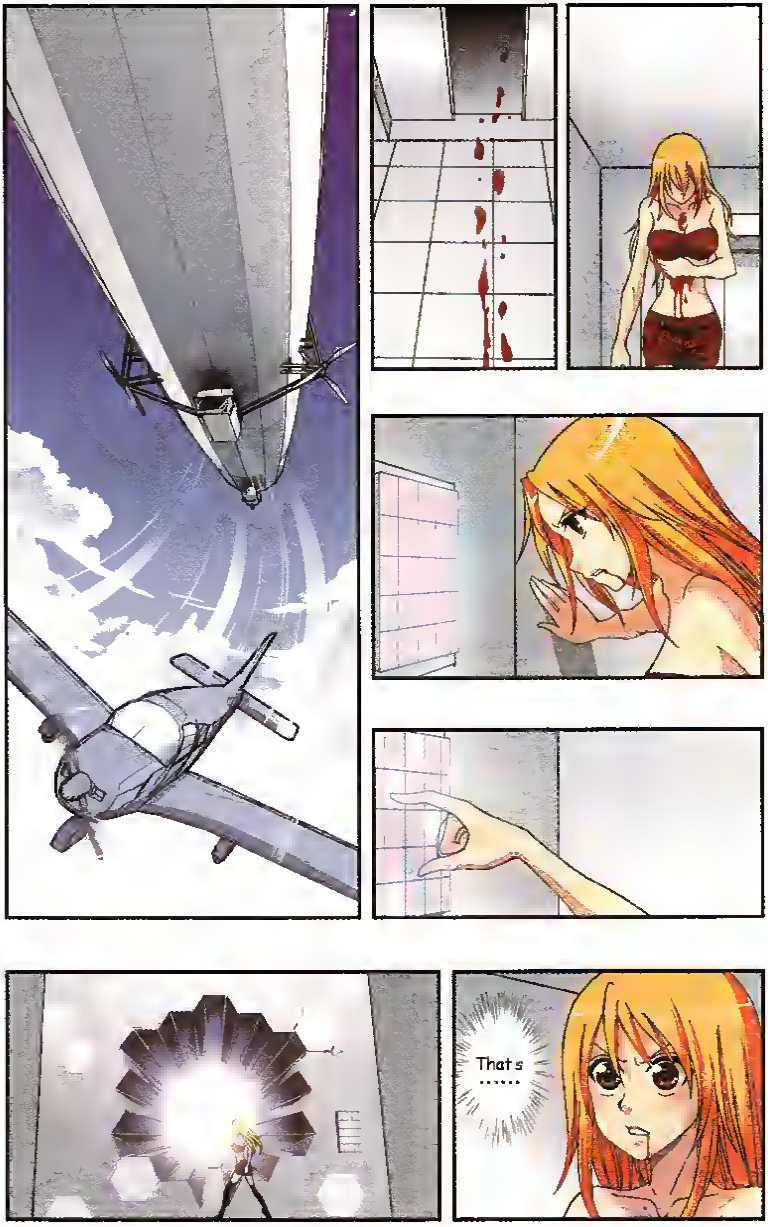
The time we've spent together holds no meaning to you?



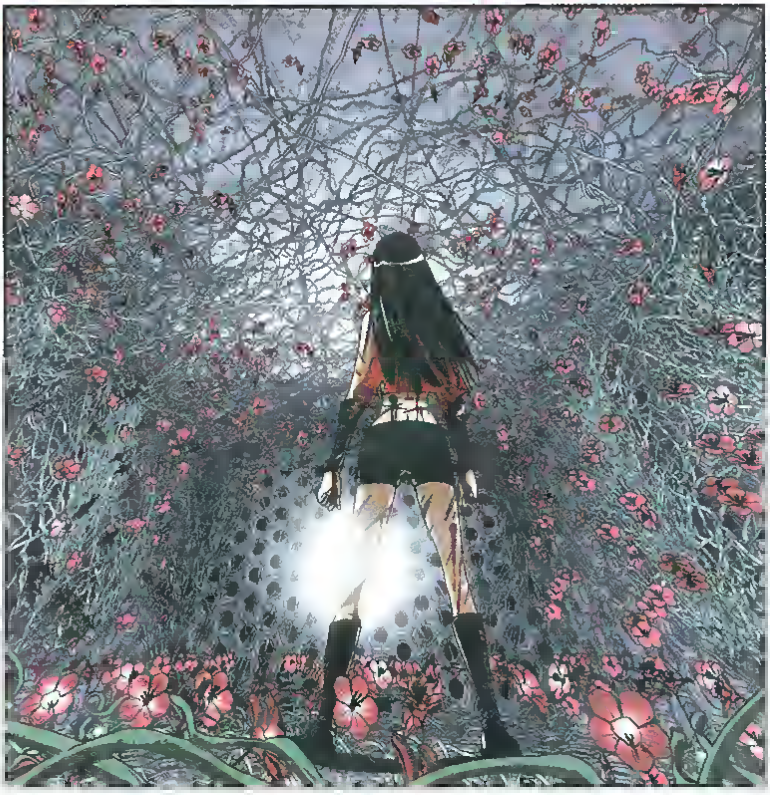
You're like a snake who has lost it's fangs.
You are nothing to me

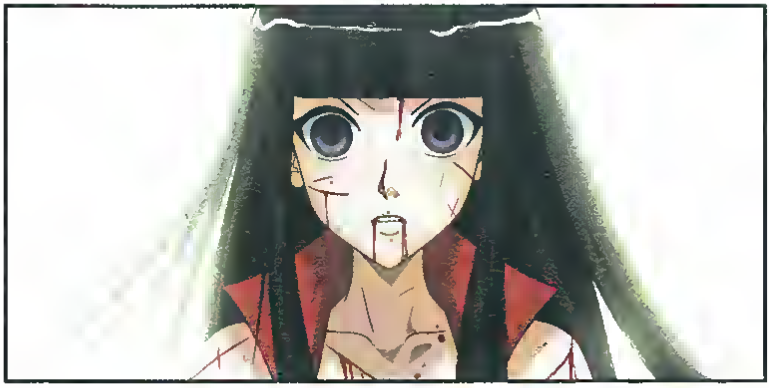


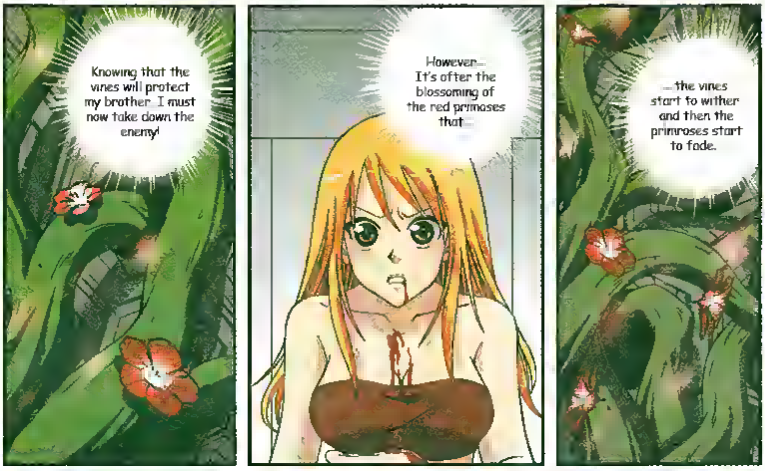
HA!
HA!
HA!
HA!
HA!



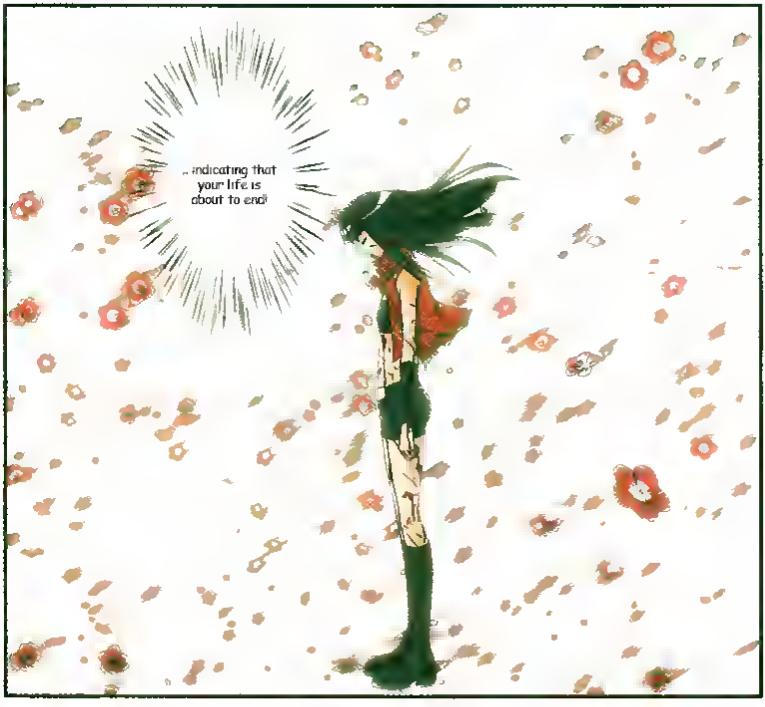
That's
.....



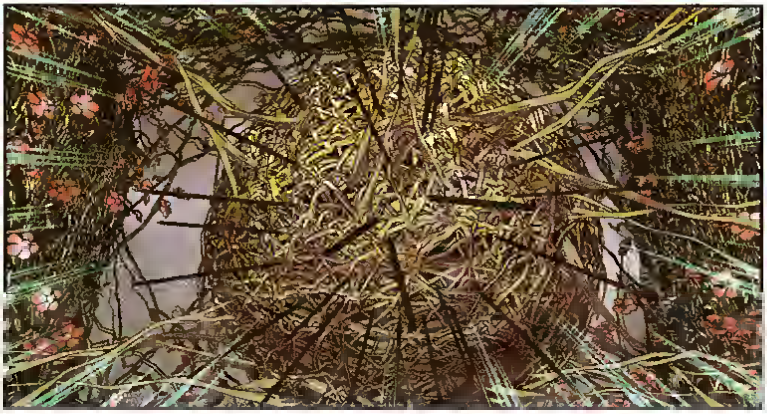




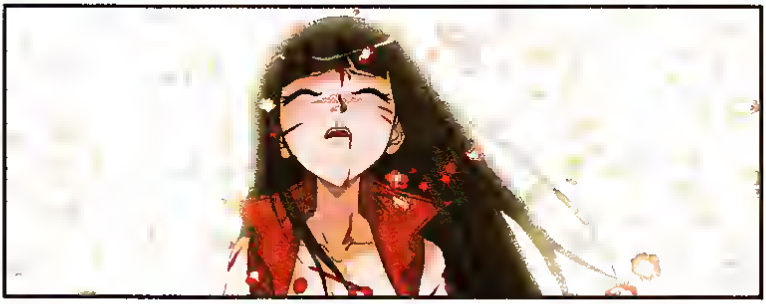
Knowing that the vines will protect my brother, I must now take down the enemy!
However... It's after the blossoming of the red primroses that...
...the vines start to wither and then the primroses start to fade.



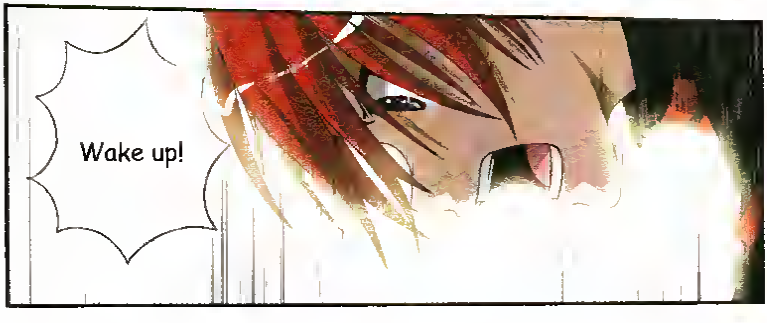
...indicating that your life is about to end!



GAH!



April!



Wake up!

I've always been an idiot, and now you're being one! You must know this all too well!

Why did you so waywardly choose me as your partner?
Could it be that you hadn't predicted the outcome of today?
